Activity: Record a video of the child sharing his/her views on Corona | Cognitive skills | 9 to 11 years

Skill development milestone

With a longer attention span, they will have more interests and start doing things like collecting and starting hobbies. They are also capable of concentrating and resuming a task after an interruption. They take notes, organize facts, and write reports from the material. They take part in class discussions and share their own ideas.

Good at memorizing and recalling information, but typically does not show a deep understanding of it. Kids now understand information detailed in drawings, timelines, and charts. They may start to show more creativity in things like writing, designing, or performing arts. Kids might start using slang and repeating things their friends said at school.

Kids should be able to solve mathematical problems, including fractions, word problems, and multiplication and division involving long numbers. They will also start to learn more complicated math subjects, like decimals, long division, and possibly geometry. They may start learning mathematical concepts like variables, ratios, and negative numbers, and start reading books that are more challenging.

Your child's brain is still developing. He/she can grasp abstract concepts and is starting to understand shades of gray in the world. He/she will also be developing his/her ability to think logically and solve problems systematically. As your child's brain continues to develop, their schoolwork may be uneven at this point, and interests may be changing rapidly. They are likely to use gestures and facial expressions - like the eye roll - to get their point across.

Child begins to understand that not everyone holds the same beliefs. Child can use logic and debate others quite well. At this age, they have better ability of making decisions. They might not be particularly good at organizing or planning things in a practical way yet.

Activity description

The child needs to debate on the topic “Corona Virus will do more favor to the world than damage.”

The child is required to debate on the topic both in favor of the motion & against the motion. The child has to speak for 60 seconds for each. The child should first speak for the side for which the child feels strongly followed by the other house. In the second case, the child is required to strongly counter at least three points presented in the first commentary on the topic.

Let the child practice this for a few days.

When you feel that the child is ready to record his message, record a video of the child sharing his/her views.

The video should be submitted as an entry as per submission guidelines.
